Hunt The "Hill"!!

24 K Update

April 23, 2008

Dear Member,

The push is on for Saturday, April 26. We have completed the excavations for all five sites on the Devil's Nest Claims and will open them at 9AM Saturday morning.

This is the last push of this season. The next push will be opened on October 11, 2008; the start of our new season.

Remember, the coil restriction rule has been changed. The 11 inch or smaller coil will be the rule for Saturday only. Sunday you may use your coil of choice.

Also, please be aware that any members whose membership dues have lapsed or are due will be notified prior to the push opening. You may bring your dues current at the push or renew online at our web site, www.24kgoldhunters.com. If you renew online, please bring your printed receipt with you. Lapsed members will not participate in the hunt or prospect on any of the 24K claims.

Please wear your badges or bring proof of membership with you.

We are giving away two vacation accommodations for 3 days and 2 nights in Las Vegas, Laughlin, Mesquite, Tahoe, or Reno (all in Nevada) or Tunica or Biloxi Mississippi. If you choose Las Vegas there is a $500 Fun Pack included. One prize will be given for the first nugget found on any of the push sites; the second one will be awarded to the person who finds the largest nugget of the day. The day will officially end at 3PM.

SEE YOU ON THE HILL!
